The Eddy invites you to celebrate International Mother Language Day by reading a brief text in the first language you learned. This may be a poem, an aphorism, a famous quotation or passage. Or just join us to listen in. We aim to share the multilingual voices of our New Paltz community and honor the abundance of cultural wisdom we hold.

Already, people have signed up to read in Czech, French, Mandarin Chinese, Hebrew, Dutch, Creole, and German!

All students, employees, staff, faculty, administrative divisions/groups invited to participate by listening or presenting.

Join us via WebEx at this link. It is helpful to register at this link so speakers can be scheduled in conveniently, but students may also show up without registration.
