- Students are eligible to register for the vaccine, if they are 16 years old or older. SUNY New Paltz living and/or studying in New York are eligible to register for the vaccine, if they are least 16 years old.

National Interest Exceptions

- As you know, COVID-19 continues to be a fluid situation. This can potentially complicate any international travel at this time, and into the foreseeable future. You may qualify for a National Interest Exception (NIE). This means students who are applying for or have valid visas may travel to the United States no earlier than 30 days before the start of their academic studies.

Travel Restrictions

- According to US Presidential Proclamations, the countries that were affected by travel restrictions into the US were the United States, the United Kingdom, and Ireland. However, the travel restrictions remain in place for other travelers from these countries.
